

My Favorite

This is a great getting to know you activity – or a getting to know people better. It works well in groups from about 10 – 40. Beforehand, print out all of the cards (and add your own, if you have more) and cut them up. (please read them through and take out any that aren't appropriate for your group) Sit in a circle and everyone gets a card. Have the first person read the beginning and fill in the rest.
